SPEND THESE WARM DAYS AT THE BEACH—Santa Monica is delightful weather. The tide will be very low in the afternoon all this week and the bathing more than usually pleasant. The temperature of the ocean is about 60 degrees, which is plenty warm for many people, but in addition the big waves are full of water at 80 degrees, which ought to be warm enough for an invalid. The tub baths are always in readiness. We aim to keep every part of the establishment scrupulously clean. Baths only 25 cents.

The Pontonawski in 'Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Prince and Princess Pontonawski and their party, the most important member of the party, the little son born this fall in Paris, arrived here today. Mrs. Will Crocker was also a member of the party. The Pontonawski will remain all winter in California and are encensed in the mansion on the hill, which is the home of the Princess's sister. After a while they will visit Mr.
and Mrs. Sperry of Stockton, the father and mother of the Princesses.

Testimony Against Capt. Lane.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Two more little girls testified against Capt.
Peter Lane today, and the old South-Sea trader was held on a second charge in $15,000 bail. The girls, one of them a pretty little one, 11 years old, told of their visits to Lane's room and of his present of rinkets to them. They minutely described his actions toward them, and one of the girls testified she had watched Lane while he was alone with her companion.

A Result of Over-feeding.

OAKLAND, Nov. 20.—A gasoline engine, in the Corral Hollow coal mine, near Livermore, exploded last night.
Fifteen to twenty men were working at the time, but all escaped except Peter Roos, an Italian, who was suffocated.

and it is supposed pumped too much gas and burst.

Spain Preparing Claims Against Venezuela.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.)

HAVANA, Nov. 20.—(By South American Cable). In official circles it is said that Maceo and Gomez, described respectively as the "arm" and "head" of this rebellion, believing that the insurgent army could not hold out, have decided to grind sugar in the province of Santa Clara, where the planters are in sympathy with the government, decided to invade Santa Clara. But it is added, the energy displayed by Gen. Campos has compelled the two insurgent leaders to recross the Zaca River, and it is officially stated that they are now nowhere within the borders of the province of Puerto Principe, or the province of Santa Clara.Continuing, it is stated that the producing people of the province of Santa Clara are now confident of being able to grind their sugar cane, and are consequently backing up all their efforts the government and captain-general against the insurgents.WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—It can be definitely stated that in dealing with filibusters against Spanish authority in Cuba, the United States will not take any action for the sole purpose of assuring delay in restoring arms to masters of vessels, which upon arrival have been acquitted of the charge brought against them. Recently a United States sloop, the Albatross, was ordered to proceed against a suspected vessel, which was dismissed because of some technical irregularity. Today he was instructed to proceed against the vessel.
The duty and object of the government, this high authority declared, was the observance and enforcement of the law.The following is a copy (translation) of an order believed to be authentic and issued from the headquarters of a portion of the insurgent forces, and expressed partly in Santa Clara and partly in Matanzas:"The Insurgent Army of Cuba, Fifth Corps, the Army of the East, Brigades
No. 1 and 2, in accordance with orders of the provisional government, and to the end that no one may allege ignorance, I hereby instruct the commanders and officers, cane planters and proprie-taries of this zone under my command:
"First.—The buildings and cane fields of all plantations and estates, whether respected, provided no work is given to any able-bodied laborer, nor the operation of grinding commenced.
"Second.—No fortifications or other works located in the same for their protection.
"Third.—In ten days, to expire on the 12th inst., is hereby ordered the suspension of all works, if commenced, the destruction of the fortifications, and the withdrawal of the army of troops, if any, from the same.
"Fourth.—Those who contravene this order will be severely punished and their buildings and cane fields reduced to ashes.
"Headquarters of operations, November 2, 1895.
"FRANCISCO J. PEREZ,
"Chief of the Brigade."In view of the seizure of the Horsa at Kingston, Jamaica, and the capture of the insurgent forces, the expected capture of the Horsa, the details of the operation are made public. The reports received here show that after a public meeting of Cuban patriots, held on November 9, the filibustering party renewed at the Junta headquarters a bundle of arms to be carried over to Cape Baragua, and the passengers, forty in number, transferred.
The Horsa had sailed from Philadelphia, and was to be bound for Port Antonio. The party was regarded as more than ordinary importance, as it was commanded by Gen. Francisco Carrillo, with Col. Jose Aguirre second in command. Both of these officers have been prominent in the diplomatic negotiations of the United States concerning Cuba. They were in session in Havana when the rebellion began, and were set free at the request of the American Consul at Ha-vanna. Mr. Williams, on the ground that they were American citizens, "on being released they came to the United States, where they were placed under guard at Wilmington, Del., as one of the alleged filibusters captured by the United States authorities.
Aguirre was acquitted. With Col.
Carrillo he planned the Horsa expedition and took command of it. After the party had sailed no secrecy was observed, and the names of the party and of the personnel of the Ward line steamer, which was to carry them, were made public. The names of the party that the five arrested in Cuba have been identified by Spanish authorities as members of the New York expedition.
The arrest was made by a Spanish corporal and his guard, at one of the block-houses along the Cuban coast.
After landing part of the men, the Horsa was chased by a Spanish warship, and sought shelter at Jamaica, where the British authorities seized her.NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—On the steamer Saratoga of the Ward line, which has just arrived, were two Cuban refugees, named L. Alvarez and R.
Mazorra. They were put on board the Saratoga at Havana and were escorted by two Spanish army officers, who were responsible for their safe embarkation.
Both gentlemen are entirely ignorant of the English language and refused to talk through an interpreter. Their fellow passengers could give no information as to what led to their exile.
SPAIN AND VENEZUELA.NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A special to the Herald from Havana says that it is reported here that Spain is preparing to press important claims upon the government of Venezuela simultaneously with the demands of Great Britain on the same country. There is a report current in the city that Spain will join Spain, as she has claims of her own to settle with Venezuela.
The cruiser Albatross XIII has sailed for La Guayra, Venezuela. The Spanish warship also left the port of Ha-vanna hurriedly last night. Senor de Castro, the Spanish Minister to Canberra, who has been in this city for some time, was on board the vessel.
Senor de Castro, before his departure, held a conference with the officials here. It is said that matters of great importance were discussed.WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Official information has been received here of the capture of the rebel steamer Horsa, and the arrest in Cuba of five principal members of the expedition. A dispatch from Havana states that on Sunday a boat with five passengers and crew arrived from Aguadeca, six miles from Santiago de Cuba. The men said they were fishermen from Jamaica, but afterward admitted that they were on the way to join the rebels and had thrown over their rans when discovered.Their names are: Fernandez Alvarez, who had the commission of general
from Venezuela; Fernando Melendez, Francisco Zaldivar, Manuel Harota, Leonardo Venet, all Cubans.
As soon as the foregoing dispatch was received, the United States army was alerted here as well-known members of the Cuban Colony in New York, who left that city secretly on the night of Saturday, November 9, boarding the steamer Horsa off Cape Bara-guate.

FALSE RUMORS.

HAVANA, Nov. 20.—The rumor that Spanish Generals Aldave and Suarez
Valdez had been killed and Gen.
Luque wounded in engagements with the insurgents, proves untrue, as also the report that the Minister of Marine had been killed. The insurgent commander, was drowned while waiting while waiting across the Zaca River.

GONZALES SURPRISED.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—The Dispatch tomorrow will publish a letter from its special correspondent,
who is on the field near Cumanagua,
in which he gives details of a battle at Gulia, near Cumanagua. He says the insurgents, numbering 150 Spanish soldiers were defeated by 150 Spanish soldiers through the negligence of the insurgent commander, Col. Jose Gonzalez, who failed to mount any guards for the protection of his camp. When the Spanish forces, who had made a forced march during the night, surprised the camp in the morning, the insurgent officers and men fled, save only forty-two infantry, whom Capt. Jose Campillo hastily ordered to get away.
The Spanish forces were under the Spaniards in check for an hour, thus saving the disorganized retreat of the rest of their force from being turned into a slaughterhouse. The retreat was later made in good order.Only 250 of the insurgents had come into camp by the next day, but it is apparent that the fighting was killed, as most of the fighting was between the forty-two insurgents and Spaniards, both sides well covered. The Cuban forces here were under the command of Gonzalez and he will probably be shot.

CAMPOS'S SON ILL.

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 20.—Late advice from Cuba say that Jose, the youngest son of Gen. Campos, has been attacked by the typhoid fever in the province of Santa Clara. Physicians fear the worst. Gen. Campos having ordered the reporter of the Madrid papers to write the illness of his son.

CONSTITUTIONAL UNION PARTY.

MADRID, Nov. 20.—According to a dispatch received here from Havana,
the Constitutional Union Party of Cuba,
at a meeting recently held at Matanzas, renewed its adhesion to the government and Gen. Campos, and expressed confidence that reforms would be introduced at the opportune moment.The advice from Cuba add that Maximo, the insurgent leader, has reissued orders for the destruction by fire of plantations and threatening with death all who assist in gathering the arms. The purpose of the order is to deprive the Spanish army of means of subsistence in the field.

A SPANISH DEFEAT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A special to that the passengers by the Olivette reported that the Spanish were defeated by a local force of Cuban patriots, in the battle of November 17.

"MAGNETIC CARDS."

A SWINDLER CAUGHT BY A LOS ANGELES GAMBLER.The Federal Grand Jury at Omaha returns an indictment against
H. S. Woolworth, alias Fred Collins.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.)

OMAHA, Nov. 20.—(Special Dispatch.)
Among the indictments returned by the Federal grand jury today was one against H. S. Woolworth, who used the United States mails with intent to defraud. He mailed a letter to a gambler in Los Angeles, asking that an immediate reply be sent to Fred Collins, at Rapid City, S. D. The Los Angeles gambler, named Fred Collins, was a postal inspector, who traced Woolworth to Alliance, Neb., and there lost the trail.Woolworth offered to sell a preparation for the treatment of playing cards, giving to him, he claimed, the attractive quality of a magnet, the cards, for instance, would be magnetized positively and adhere together, while cards of less value would be magnetized negatively and repel the high cards in contact.
so that the dealer, or anyone knowing the quality of the cards, could readily beat the game. Woolworth said in his letter that when by use of the cards failed to perform their mission to cheat, they might be replenished by a machine for making the preparation, which he offered for sale at $25 each. He also applied the same principle to the roulette wheel, magnetizing the pockets both to repel and attract the balls. He offered loaded dice made to perform miracles.
In his letter he said he did business only with gamblers of high standing, and his charges were excessive. United States marshals will be instructed to "lay" for him.NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—On the

KOVALEV IS GUILTY.

THE JURY RETURNS A VERDICT AGAINST HIM.

He Must Suffer to the Full Extent of the Law, Which Means Death.

An Immense Crowd Present in the Courtroom, but There Was No Scene.

List of Successful Wine Exhibitors at Bordeaux.—E. Harry Levy Denies that He Committed Suicide at Los Angeles.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—SACRAMENTO, Nov. 20.—Shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon the jury in the case of Ivan Kovalev rendered a verdict finding the prisoner guilty of the murder of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. L. Weber in this city on December 29, 1894. The verdict was given without qualification and under the law the culprit must suffer death.

The verdict gives general satisfaction. Kovalev had a fair trial. His guilt was established beyond a reasonable doubt, and, beyond all that, he confessed that he participated in the crime. When the verdict was rendered the prisoner did not show any sign of emotion.

There was an immense crowd of people in the courtroom and it was expected that there would be a scene when the verdict was rendered. The court announced that sentence would be pronounced on the 29th inst.

CALIFORNIA WINES.

List of Medals and Diplomas for Exhibitors at Bordeaux.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—A list of awards of medals and diplomas for California wines exhibited at the recent exposition at Bordeaux has been received at the office of the Board of State Viticultural Commissioners, together with a receipted list of awards for brands.

While California did not fare so well as might have been expected, still in the number and character of the awards, the State holds its own very well. The jury, evidently, in giving out its medals and diplomas, did not care to be free with them where the foreign countries were concerned. For instance, Germany received but two diplomas of honor, four silver medals and two bronze medals. Perhaps national feeling was a factor in this. Russia received but one grand prize, which was for wines from the properties of the Emperor, one bronze medal and four honorable mentions, and so on throughout the list of European countries. In dealing with French exhibitors, the case was different. Producers in the Department of Gironde, for instance, being awarded nine grand prizes, nine places of honor and ninety diplomas. Nevertheless it is thought by California that the sending of an exhibit to Bordeaux was excellent policy, for among the judges who passed upon the wines were Ackerman Laurence of Saumur, M. Bouchard of Beaune, Jean Calvert of Bordeaux, D. J. DuFour of Nantes, T. Eschenauer of Bordeaux, J. A. Lalande of Bordeaux, men whose names as wine merchants are known throughout the world.

The awards to California were as follows:

Wine, silver medals, California collection—Cupertino Wine Company, Cupertino, Santa Clara county. Bronze medals, F. Albert, Cloverdale; A. Harshasty, C. Carpay & Co. of Napa, H. W. Crabbe, Oakville; Kohler & Frohling, Glen Ellen; A. Repsold & Co., San Francisco.

Bronze medals: Dishi & Co., San Francisco; George W. Stockton, Honorable mention; Beringer Bros., St. Helena; H. W. Crabbe, Oakville; Kohler & Frohling, Glen Ellen; A. Repsold & Co., San Francisco.

A MENLO PARK MYSTERY.

Daniel Driscoll Brought Home In-sensible—A Game of Cards.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—MENLO PARK, Nov. 20.—On Saturday night Daniel Driscoll, superintendent of the Sunset Seed and Plant Company, was brought home in a state of unconscious condition by two men. How or where he was hurt was a mystery that so far has not been solved. The people of this town who might know something of the affair have sealed their lips and will not talk. Yesterday, however, John O'Keefe, a prominent saloon-keeper and merchant, surrendered to the police and was released on bail. He is not even now why he gave himself up, but it is supposed that he is in some way responsible for Driscoll's injuries.

The men who the unconscious man home refused to talk, and as Driscoll is still unconscious, there is no way of ascertaining the exact facts. There is a story current, however, that O'Keefe and Driscoll quarreled over a game of cards and that O'Keefe struck Driscoll.

Physicians who are attending Driscoll say that he must have been struck a hard blow on the back of the head. They have tried all their skill to restore him to consciousness, but he has failed, and there is a probability that he may never recover.

O'Keefe is a brother of James T. O'Keefe, ex-Assemblyman and editor of the paper here. Driscoll has always been very popular and bore a good reputation.

THE BROWNVILLE TRAGEDY.

John Montgomery's Son Arrested for the Triple Murder.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—BROWNVILLE (Or.) Nov. 20.—Lloyd Montgomery, the eighteen-year-old son of John Montgomery, is under arrest, suspected of having murdered his father and mother and D. B. McKeecher, who were found shot to death yesterday afternoon, three miles from here. The coroner's verdict, which was returned this evening, is as follows:

"We, the jury, find that John Montgomery and Lizzie, his wife, and Daniel McKeecher were shot to death from gunshot wounds inflicted by some other person than themselves, and from the evidence offered in the case, we have good reasons to believe that Lloyd Montgomery is the guilty party."

Young Montgomery will have a preliminary examination tomorrow morning. At the coroner's inquest today he admitted that he was at home ten minutes before the shooting, but stated he had been sent to the pasture by his father to get a horse and while he was away the shooting took place. About 4:30 o'clock the four younger children, ranging in age from 5 to 12 years, returned home from school and were terror-stricken when they saw the corpses of their father and mother and McKeecher. The children immediately went to the farm of their uncle, a brother of their father, and gave the alarm. The neighbors for miles around were soon informed of the murder, and within two hours a large crowd had gathered. The coroner at Albany, the county seat, was notified, but did not reach here until today.

Edward Gilkey passed the house shortly before the shooting took place. He did not notice how many shots were fired and did not stop for, as he says, he thought it was the work of boys in the woods. Gilkey stated he also heard a scream. Members of the family of the brother of the murdered man, who live only a half mile away, heard five or six shots in quick succession. Evidently four shots did the killing and two went wild.

A pocketknife was found under Montgomery's body, and the top of his head was shot off. Another shot was found in a fence near by. McKeecher lying face down in the sitting-room, the shot in the left side of the head, the skull partly gone and a rifle across his lower limbs, partly cocked. Mrs. Montgomery was shot in the middle of the head, the ball ranging upward; also in the back of the head, the bullet coming out one inch below the right eye. A rifle was found set against the wall in the bedroom, covered with blood, and an alarm, identified as Lloyd Montgomery's, was on the floor. The assassin was evidently concealed behind the house.

THE WINEMAKERS.

Second Annual Meeting of the Corporation at San Francisco.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The large attendance at the second annual meeting of the Wine-makers' Corporation today showed the interest felt in the association by the dry-wine countries of the State.

In his opening address President Herman Bendel stated that the only organization which had practically shown the road to prosperity was the Wine-makers' Corporation. The industry, which was on the verge of bankruptcy, had been made profitable, and if those wine-makers who had not so far joined had done so, the corporation would have been in a position to produce 50 per cent. higher prices for its product. "Last year, when we organized," he continued, "we were practically without means. Today we have about $50,000 capital loaned out to our members on good security, and the stock, which has been issued to our members, is bearing interest."

The report of J. H. Wheeler, the secretary and manager, covered the whole field of the wine-makers' co-operative movement. Among other facts it showed that the total amount of dry wines transferred to the corporation was 3,558,000 gallons, and that the corporation had received for its product 1,434,000 gallons of red and 331,000 gallons of white wine. The capital stock was $50,000, and the sales amounted to $756,000. The interest earned showed a credit balance of $1002, as against a debit of $800 at the commencement of the year. The wine of 1894 was sold for 12 1/2 cents a gallon, and the general expenses were one-eighth of a cent a gallon. There had been distributed to members 2 1/2 cents a gallon on the wine sold, which was 11-1/2 cents a gallon added to the capital stock had produced a net return to the members of 13 1/2 cents a gallon. The corporation had produced a net return to the members of 13 1/2 cents a gallon. The corporation had produced a net return to the members of 13 1/2 cents a gallon.

A resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the stockholders that the board of directors should have the returns of wineries reduced to a reasonable percentage of the total production returned to the wine association. The other important resolutions adopted were that the pooling of freights should be continued, and each member be charged with his own freight from his cellar to point of delivery; that wine-makers should be allowed to export their product outside of the United States without charge by the corporation, and that unbound wine should be carried over at the expense of the member, but that he should be aided by reasonable advances without interest charges.

The election of directors resulted as follows: Herman Bendel, B. W. Paxton, H. B. Chase, P. C. Rossi, A. Sbarboro, W. B. Rankin, J. H. Wheeler, D. M. Delmas and C. F. Monteleagre.

AN INDIAN FIGHT.

One Redskin Killed and Another Fatally Slashed.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—SAN DIEGO, Nov. 20.—News is just received of a fatal affray among Indians in this county Saturday night. For some time past a gang of Indians has been employed for F. Nichols, a rancher, clearing away brush. On Saturday evening they procured a keg of wine, and, after drinking for a while, engaged in a free fight. One Indian was killed and another was so badly slashed that he will die.

When an officer went to the camp to investigate he found Jose Lucero, the wounded Indian, but the dead man had been carried off. Lucero refused to give any information about the fight. Other officers will go out tomorrow to inquire into the matter further.

A Drunken Quarrel on the San Francisco Water Front.

Driscoll has always been very popular and bore a good reputation.

Welch was cut under the right arm and in both breasts. His wounds are severe, but not fatal.

FROM THE ORIENT.

Cholera is Practically Extinct in Japan.—The Hong Kong Disaster.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—VICTORIA (B. C.) Nov. 20.—The steamer Empress of China reports cholera practically extinct in Japan, and few interesting developments in the Eastern situation.

All the Asiatic coast, when she sailed, was looking to King Chow, where on October 18, a combined boiler and magazine explosion on the troopship Empress of China sent 60 men to their death. The affair was fraught with peculiar horror, as a rough sea was raging, and there was no chance of life overboard. The boilers were old and unserviceable and ordinary caution would have prevented the catastrophe.

E. HARRY LEVY.

Denies That He Committed Suicide in Los Angeles.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—E. Harry Levy, formerly well-known in this city, has just returned from South Africa. The first thing he found it advisable to do after reaching the city was to correct a prevailing impression that he had committed suicide two and a half years ago in Los Angeles.

Just previous to that date he had left the Southern California metropolis for Mexico, from whence he went on to Europe, and later to South Africa. In the mean time reports had been printed in several papers here, as well as those of Los Angeles, that the body of an alleged suicide had been identified as Levy himself. However, knowing nothing of the reports, he had been engaged in mining and various business pursuits in Johannesburg and now owns several claims there which are considered quite valuable.

A PECULIAR OUTFIT.

REMINISCENCES OF NAZIRULLAH KHAN'S TOUR.

A Most Expensive Affair for Both the English and Afghanistan Governments.—The American Consulate at the Failure of His Son's Mission.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.—LONDON, Nov. 20.—(By Atlantic Cable.) The Evening News publishes a letter from Puetta, a small town of Beloochistan, near the Afghanistan coast, which states that the "Ameer" of Afghanistan, who was the son of the late Ameer, had been killed in the failure of Nazirullah Khan, his second son, to arrange for a permanent Afghanisthan representative at London during his recent visit to England.

In consequence of the rage of the Ameer of Afghanistan, many persons have been buried alive, a great number of his subjects have been imprisoned, while many others have fled. A notable who accompanied Prince Nazirullah on the occasion of his visit to England, named Kotwal, is to be tortured as soon as he arrives. It is expected that Nazirullah Khan himself will be punished, and possibly he may be banished from Afghanistan.

The visit of Nazirullah Khan, the second son of the Ameer, was one of the features of the political life in London last summer. The Ameer himself was invited to pay a visit to England, but his health would not permit him to accept the invitation. At first it was proposed that his eldest son, Prince Habibullah, should go to England. The Ameer, however, was virtually handed over the reins of the government to the heir apparent, decided he could not allow him to leave the country, and he decided to send his second son, Prince Nazirullah. No expense was spared in selecting presents for the royalties of Europe and the gifts of rupees being expended at Cashmere for the purchase of rich shawls and other costly presents. In addition to this, large sums were paid out for the purpose of giving all the crowd of his son's followers suits of clothing, money and other gifts.

The eccentricities of Prince Nazirullah amused and astonished all Europe. It was expected, upon his return to Afghanistan, that he would be the father of a wealthy chief. But this part of the programme he seems to have abandoned, owing to the disfavor of the Ameer, and the failure of his mission. One estimate was made showing that his few weeks' stay in England had cost the government £5600 for entertainments and traveling expenses, exclusive of the large bills brought in by the proprietors of the hotels and the cost of the train. The Ameer, however, is not even thinking of repaying the bills, and the animals intended for food for their master.

The doctor extricated himself as best he could, subdued the animal and righted the buggy, which fortunately was only slightly damaged. The horse had to be unhitched before the buggy could be righted, and the doctor had a hard time to get the animal back into the shafts. He called lustily for help, but no one came. CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

SPRINKLING-WAGON DRIVER HURT BY A TRACTION CAR.

Run Into by a Careless Motorman, He Suffers a Broken Arm—Two Electric Linemen Had a Narrow Escape—Minor Casualties.

Frank Abraham, an old man who was employed as driver of a street-sprinkling cart, received a serious injury yesterday morning. One version of the accident is that the old man, who was sprinkling Georgia Bell street, was driving along the track of the Traction car road. About the intersection of Pico street he heard an electric car approaching from the rear. He turned out to let the car pass, and immediately afterward turned onto the track again, all unconscious of a second car following close after the one that had just passed. The second car struck the wagon, throwing the old man forward upon his mules. He fell down between the animals, and the heavy vehicle passed over him, breaking his right arm in two places. Abraham was taken to the home of Dr. Clarence B. Dickson, No. 1125 West Washington street, surgeon of the Traction Company, for medical treatment.

Dr. Dickson said last evening that Abraham's only injury is a compound fracture of the arm and that there is no danger of his dying, as at first reported. The doctor's opinion of the accident is that Abraham had turned out of the way of a car approaching him and tried to pass in front of a car going in the opposite

ENGLAND'S CLAIM.

John Bull can easily be put down as one of the biggest and most conscienceless land-grabbers of the age. The boundary line between Alaska and the British possessions is thus described in the treaty between Russia and Great Britain made in 1825:

"Commencing from the southernmost point of the island called Prince of Wales Island, which point lies in the parallel of 54 deg. and 40 min. north latitude, and between the 131st and 132d degrees of west longitude (meridian of Greenwich), the said line shall ascend to the north along the channel called Portland Channel, as far as the point of the continent where it strikes the 56th deg. of north latitude; and from this last-mentioned point the line of demarcation shall follow the summit of the mountains situated parallel to the west as far as the point of intersection of the 141st degree of west longitude (of the same meridian); and finally from the same point of intersection, the said meridian line of the 141st degree, in its prolongation as far as the Frozen Ocean, shall form the limit between Russian and British possessions of the continent of America to the northwest."

"That wherever the summit of the mountains that extend in a direction parallel to the coast from the 56th deg. of north latitude to the point of intersection of the 141st degree of west longitude shall prove to be at the distance of more than ten marine leagues from the ocean, the limit between the British possessions and the line of coast which is to belong to Russia, as above mentioned, shall be formed by a line parallel to the winding of the coast, which shall never exceed the distance of ten marine leagues therefrom."

It is this treaty from which the United States derives all its title to Alaska. And now the Canadian authorities are claiming that the ten marine leagues shall be counted from the outside of the islands along the Alaskan shore instead of from the main shore line. This would give England control of the waterways between the islands and the rapidly increasing inland commerce between Alaska and the United States. It would bring Juneau and Douglas Island, with its great gold mines within British territory, as well as some of the largest canneries which have been established in Alaska. Uncle Sam will do well to stand for his own, and unhesitatingly frown down this unwarranted British pretension.

SAN FRANCISCO BOOMERS AND THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The able editors who are engaged in booming the "claims" of San Francisco to the Republican National Convention are really wasting time and energy when they protest that the scheme of "promotion" inaugurated by San Francisco, will not, if carried out, subject the delegates to severe criticism and place the party on the defensive in the campaign. The sending out of a carload of whisky and wine to entertain the delegates is too suggestive of a big drunk to pass unnoticed. And while it is not to be supposed that all the delegates to the convention would "touch" the seductive carload of cordials so often as to become incapacitated for their duties, it is certain that there would be a "high old time" all along the route, and that it would by no means end upon the arrival of the hilarious party at the Golden Gate city. Indeed, it is proposed that the festivities shall be renewed in San Francisco, and kept up from the beginning to the close of the convention, without expense to the delegates. Undoubtedly the latter would thus obtain an exalted idea of California hospitality. But would the serious business of the convention be promoted by such methods? It is not apparent that "our friends, the enemy" would take advantage of the situation by making gaudy which it would be very awkward to explain away, because they would be in part or wholly true?

And, on general principles, the auctioning off of the National Convention to the highest bidder is a matter to be deprecated by every friend of the Republican party and of Republican principles. It would be better far for the members of the National Committee to vote upon the place of holding the convention as their honest convictions may incline them, uninfluenced by monetary or other considerations. Such a course would be dignified, sensible, and in harmony with the serious work which will call the convention together.

The San Francisco boomers are un-

in good solid comfort, content with themselves, the city and all the world.

Coxey's vote in Ohio is estimated at 46,000. That doesn't look as if the Buckeye State indorsed him to a very great extent. But she will probably be able to manage her affairs without his assistance or that of Carl Browne, his co-agitator and ex-on-in-law, whom the country long ago recognized as an unrepentant fraud and fakir.

Secretary Carlisle is said to have returned to Washington from Kentucky "a wiser man." Perhaps, with his added wisdom, Mr. Carlisle will be able to find where he made a mistake when he figured out that $22,000,000 surplus for the current year.

Alabama has a new political party, which has taken the name of the "Independent and Honest Election party." There is some need for a party in Alabama which will live up to the object indicated by the name of this new organization.

The California Blue-Book, or State roster, has just been issued from the office of the Secretary of State. It is, as usual, a comprehensive and valuable work.

Most of the "doubtful States," next year, will probably be south of Mason and Dixon's line.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ORPHEUM.—The Musin Concert Company is drawing audiences of the highest class at the Orpheum, and the magnificent playing of Ovide Musin on the violin, the fine piano-playing by Edward Schorff and the deliciously delicate and soulful singing of Annie Louise Tanner Musin are among the uncovers who love the art in its highest forms, the keenest pleasure. Mr. Musin and the other members of his small but brilliant company give a nightly concert program, and all those who care for the classics of melody rendered with all the excellence attained by true artists should not fail to take advantage of an opportunity seldom advanced on any stage.

The vaudeville features of the bill, while not numerous, are sufficiently lively to gain the warm favor of admirers of that class of entertainment.

BURBANK.—The Fawley Company is again attracting big houses this week, and the bill is gaining great favor with the people before the footlights. "The Arabian Nights" is no end bright and engaging, and the clever people of the company, with their humor in its pleasant form and beam in fine fashion. It promises to be the largest week's business of this very successful season.

ATTRACTION TONIGHT.—"Charley's Aunt," who talks about Brazil, where the nuts come from, is the lively stage creation booked for the Los Angeles Theater tonight, and all the rest of the week. It is a farcical comedy of complications and complexities, sweetened with funny situations and gay with humor in its pleasant form and beam in fine fashion. It promises to be the largest week's business of this very successful season.

MORAL EQUALITY.

The Women Believe it for Both Sexes.

A large crowd of interested women were present yesterday afternoon at the meeting held at the First Baptist Church, the sixth in the course of popular addresses now being given under the auspices of the W.C.T.U. Mrs. Anna S. Averill read a very strong paper on "Moral Equality for Both Sexes," which was well received.

While the business life of Los Angeles has made marvelous advancement within the past decade, and its leading newspaper has grown from small beginnings to be metropolitan in size and in mechanical appointments, the social life of Los Angeles has fully kept pace with the advancement of business life and the city's growing wealth and development. It is asserted by those who have traveled extensively through the State, and who are familiar with the chief towns and cities of the commonwealth, that nowhere can be found a city with so large a population of elegant residences, fine gardens, costly public edifices, school-houses and churches as Los Angeles today presents.

Here also the best theatrical and musical talent that comes to this coast finds most generous patronage. Second and third-rate performances are not received with favor, and might with advantage to themselves keep at a distance, for Los Angeles has no use for them. She is fully competent to distinguish between the good and the indifferent, and she is a lover of the meritorious drama and the operatic stage.

Thus we see it surely evidenced that the growth of Los Angeles is not a one-sided growth, but she has developed along all the lines of progress and modern life, and she is a city of whose rapid and healthy development any State might feel proud. She is rich in the number of her schoolhouses and churches, in the multiplicity of her ever-extending car lines, in her well-conducted electric system of street lighting, in her first-class houses of amusement, and in all that makes up the inner and broadening life of the modern city.

As compared with other cities of the country, she is a moral city. There is no more of crime and of vice in any form than is found in the older and best-ordered cities of the continent. Her people are law-abiding, and punishment for crime is meted out here as swiftly as in any other well-ordered community. Life and property are as secure as they are anywhere in the land, and there is nothing in the world to hinder people from living among us

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

W. J. MURPHY AND MRS. SHIP-TON ARRESTED.

Jury in Kingsbury Case Disagree. Burke Acquitted—Nolan Gets Ten Years.

Suburbanites Will not Receive Fire Protection in Future—The Fire Commission's Edict.

A Long-standing Dispute Between Sewer Contractors and Property-owners Promises to be Amicably Adjusted.

The Fire Commissioners yesterday instructed Chief Moore to not respond to fire alarms outside the city. An agreement was made yesterday between the Contractors Darcy and Powell, whereby a connection will be made between the sewer districts No. 3 and 4. The matter will be considered by the Council in special session this morning.

At the Courthouse yesterday the Kingsbury case went to the jury, which promptly disagreed. J. J. Burke was acquitted of the murder of Harry Nolan was given ten years in Folsom. Counter-affidavits in the Mayne case were prepared by the District Attorney, to be filed today. W. J. Murphy and Mrs. Clara Ship-ton have been arrested for subornation of perjury.

AT THE CITY HALL.

FIRE COMMISSIONERS.

Suburban Residents Can Not Enjoy Fire Protection Advantages.

The question of allowing the fire department to respond to calls for assistance from persons living outside the city limits was discussed yesterday morning at the regular meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners.

Chief Moore said that a number of alarms have been turned in during the past several weeks which have proved to be for fires in the suburban districts. He wished the commissioners to instruct him in the matter, and state whether or not the engine should respond to alarms not in the city proper.

"Those people," said Mayor Rader, "had the privilege some time ago of coming to the city and getting the benefits of city life, including fire protection. As they did not see fit to do so, I don't see why they should be shown any particular consideration. It is the sentiment of the board, and a motion was accordingly adopted, by which the fire apparatus is to be kept in the city limits, and no fire engine is to be sent beyond the city limits without the permission of the commissioners having first been obtained.

Chief Moore's application of the following persons to use gas and steam engines were granted by the board: Snook & Morton, 421-423 E. 1st St.; Los Angeles Casket Company, 759 Upper Main St.; J. S. McIlroy, Second and Spring streets. The petitions of Doty and Hays, 144 West 18th St.; D. C. Williams, 144 West 18th St.; Co-operative Socialists, 445 Upper Main, for permission to operate engines and trucks on the streets, were also granted. The chief reported the practice drills of the various companies as having taken place under his supervision. The monthly meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners was held yesterday afternoon at the city hall, and the following communication to the board:

"It is my sad duty to report that on the 19th inst. at 6 p.m., while responding to an alarm of fire, Captain Sam Haskins was accidentally killed by being crushed between the hind wheel and boiler of Engine No. 3. The deceased was a member of the fire department and was a faithful and industrious fireman."

The commissioners commented feelingly on the life and death of the fireman, and the chief was instructed to pay the funeral expenses of the deceased and to have a memorial service for him. The following communication was received from the owner of a patent fire escape:

"I wish to call your attention to the fire escape which your Honorable Body inspected on the Los Angeles Daily Times building on the 13th ult. I am prepared to manufacture and place on these escapes on buildings in your city. But in order to do this I find it necessary to have your consent to make a permit. I therefore make this means of bringing the matter before your Honorable Body, and trust it will be of service to you."

When the Commissioners came to the question of the usual demands and regulations, a number of bills were introduced that needed revision. One of these was from a carriage maker, Mr. Malone, who presented a bill for making some repairs on a hook and ladder truck. This was considered and the bill was passed.

The monthly meeting of the department, amounting to $4745, was approved and the Commission then adjourned.

COMMUNION CUPS.

Death is Declared to Lurk in the Sacred Chalice.

any other person has previously partaken.

"Previously to every service of the Holy Communion all the vessels to be used shall be completely immersed in boiling water, to which has been added sufficient bicarbonate of soda to make a strong alkaline solution."

In conclusion, permit your petitioner to express the conviction that recommendation will have, with some Christian people, nearly the same force as legislation. He would not ask that a hasty action be taken, but that opportunity as well as respondents to the subject matter of this petition be given an ample opportunity to express their approval or disapproval, either by petitions or private correspondence to your several members."

Copies of this letter have been sent to the Boards of Health in Oakland, San Francisco and Sacramento.

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.

The New Telephone Company is preparing for construction.

Bonds to the amount of $31,500 were filed by Herman de Laguna, with the City Clerk yesterday, this being the amount required by the ordinance granting Mr. de Laguna a telephone franchise.

The first bond is for $1500, and is given to guarantee the receipt by the city of 1 1/2 per cent. of the company's gross earnings for the two years ending November 1, 1907.

On this bond are: John Reiman, C. Dodge and H. de Laguna. The second bond, for $30,000, is required by the city to guarantee the fulfillment of the conditions by which the grantee of the franchise agrees to replace in proper condition all streets or alleys that may be torn up in the construction of the line into which the telephone is to be used in the building of the system, and hence act as sureties on Mr. de Laguna's bond. In addition to these bonds Mr. de Laguna addressed the following communication to the City Council:

"By sec. 8 of that certain telephone franchise granted unto me, as passed and adopted on the 11th inst., we are required to furnish telephone lines for the use of the city. Will the Council kindly instruct the proper official or committee to prepare a list of the places and localities where these telephone lines are to be installed. We desire this information as speedily as possible, that our engineer may be enabled to make the necessary calculations for material as close and correct as possible."

"I also beg to submit for the approval of your honorable body what I consider to be a plan for the construction of the lines similar in character and manner to those used by the Sunset Telephone Company, and by using the opposite sides of the streets, in the districts where conduits are required, that are now occupied by the conduits of the gas and water companies, and Telegraph Company, together with all the necessary appurtenances as allowed by the ordinance, and that where poles are required, to add such poles, as far as possible, to the existing poles now occupied by lines or poles, the same will be placed the regulation distance apart, or, in other words, the poles on the same distance now allowed by the Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company."

CONNECTION TO BE MADE.

An Important Compromise Reached by Two Sewer Contractors.

From the agreement made yesterday between Contractors Darcy and Powell, it appears probable that the objections hitherto made by citizens in Sewer District No. 3 to the acceptance by the City Engineer and the Street Superintendent of the sewer work constructed by Capt. Darcy, will be done away with and the entire matter amicably adjusted.

It will be remembered that a lengthy protest against the acceptance of Capt. Darcy's work was filed with the City Clerk last week. This protest was printed in full by The Times and related a number of reasons why it would not be proper to accept the work. The chief objection seemed to be that no outlet could be obtained from the sewer system of the district, and that the Powell of district No. 4, refused to allow Capt. Darcy to connect with his system and thus obtain an outlet. There was no possibility of forcing Mr. Powell to allow of such connection being made, and up to yesterday, the contractor seemed to be assented to the desired connection. He claimed that his attorney advised him against giving his consent to the plan as it would cost him a great deal of money, and he was unable to secure the necessary amount and make the necessary collection of assessments. But yesterday the two contractors agreed to a compromise, and the objection was dropped.

At the close of the consultation, agreed to allow the two systems to be connected at the corner of Union and Washington streets. While this may not settle the disputed points between Capt. Darcy and the property-owners in Sewer District No. 3, those who are interested in the sewerage of the city are relieved of a great deal of trouble with the question of a proper outlet settled, the rest of the property-owners' objections will vanish.

Yesterday morning an additional protest against the acceptance of Capt. Darcy's work was filed with the City Clerk, in which the objections previously made are reiterated and additional ones are cited. This was filed, however, before Contractor Powell had agreed to allow the sewer systems to be connected, and consequently it will not take this feature of the case into consideration. The time for protests on this work has expired, and the City Council will accordingly consider the matter this morning.

CITY HALL MEET.

The City Council will meet in special session at 10 o'clock this morning.

Much complaint has been made that the material for the front of the new City Jail is not suitable for the purpose. The specifications call for granite, and builders say that granite is not only unobtainable, but will not stand fire at all. Sandstone is preferable to granite, and while it costs more, Contractor Reiman is willing to use the stone instead of granite. It is probable that the Council will order the specifications changed to call for sandstone.

Superintendent of Schools Foshy has arranged to receive telegraphic communication from Chicago on Saturday morning, when the Executive Committee of the National Educational Association will meet to decide upon the location of the association's meeting in 1908.

Superintendent Foshy has hope of Los Angeles securing the meeting, and regards the numerous postponements of the settlement of the question as a favorable indication of success.

The committee appointed to investigate the protest against the location of a cemetery on Boyle Heights inspected the premises yesterday, and individual members of the committee, on their return to the City Hall, expressed themselves as favoring the location, in spite of the protest that has been made. No formal report in the matter has been prepared.

(Santa Barbara Press.) American cities are not long in adopting a good thing. The last horse-car line has disappeared in Baltimore, and yet the electric system is so new that a visitor from Europe finds it the most surprising improvement seen anywhere in the course of his travels.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

THE COURTS.

The District Attorney Checkmates Mayne's Latest Move.

Late yesterday afternoon warrants were sworn out for the arrest of W. J. Murphy, Mayne's attorney, and Mrs. Clara Ship-ton on the charge of subornation of perjury. The District Attorney claims that Della Ship-ton was wrought up to committing perjury by the efforts of her mother and Murphy, and that the real work was done here the child being taken to San Diego only to get her out of the country.

As soon as Della's affidavit was secured, the District Attorney's assistant District Attorney Williams for drawing up the complaints, and a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Ship-ton was telegraphed to San Diego by Sheriff Burr. As soon as she was under arrest Murphy was nailed here in Los Angeles, and both will be put under heavy bonds.

Yesterday it was Deputy District Attorney Holton who asked for another continuance of the sentence of Clifton E. Mayne, as the District Attorney wished to file affidavits refuting the document which Della Ship-ton had been induced to sign. The defense consented with large alacrity to the continuance, which was readily granted by Judge Smith.

Four affidavits will be filed this morning by the District Attorney, completely upsetting Della Ship-ton's latest story, which is claimed to be a fabrication from beginning to end. Della is said to be a vain, flighty child, easily won over by flattery and persuasion, and the course taken with her as soon as her mother regained possession of her was such as to excite suspicion in the District Attorney's office, that she would in some way be persuaded or terrorized into giving her testimony. The affidavit filed yesterday was not unexpected, and the prosecution does not seem at all surprised by it, as it was substantially the same as the evidence she gave at the trial.

This earlier testimony will be introduced by Mr. Holton today, and the perfect consistency in the statements of the little girl, made on the stand at the preliminary examination, and at the trial, and the fact that she was not influenced by anyone, will be shown. This practically disposes of the entire question of undue influence exerted by the Wrights.

Della Ship-ton makes affidavit that she was with Della almost all the time they were staying at the Wrights, and that during that time she never heard either Mr. or Mrs. Wright say anything to Della with reference to what she should testify, except to tell her that she must be careful to say nothing that would hurt her mother or father.

Elsie further states that Della wrote all the letters she wanted to write staying at Mrs. Wright's, and that, far from taking any part in the matter, from her Mr. Wright would have given her more if she had chosen to ask for them at any time. The two girls were permitted to see any one who called at the house, unless it happened to be an emissary of Mayne's. They were both instructed by the District Attorney not to see or talk to any one who called in the interest of the defendant.

Elsie states positively that Della did not, in any way, fear Mrs. Wright, and that her testimony was not influenced by any one, being only the same facts that she had told the affiant repeatedly before the trial.

With regard to Della's statement that both girls had told their mother on the day of the preliminary examination that Mayne had done nothing to injure them, Elsie positively states that such thing was said by either of them, she also asserts that their mother did not want Della to go to San Francisco with her, and that she was with her until after the trial.

It was best for the girl to stay at the Florence Home until after the trial. There were no officers at Mrs. Wright's, and she was not taken away until after the trial.

Elsie also denies that Mrs. Wright was always talking to this matter, and asserts that, on the contrary, Mrs. Wright was very careful of the child, as he was responsible for her appearance, and had given a bond of $5000 to the Florence Home, and that nothing was to be said or done without the consent of the Florence Home. Neither of the girls were in any way imprisoned or restrained, and used often to go out in the evenings with Mr. Wright. Della always appeared contented and willing to remain with Mrs. Wright, even requesting to be allowed to stay where she was when her mother made the attempt to have her deposited taken that she might take her away to San Francisco.

Mr. Wright emphatically denies that she ever attempted to influence Della's testimony, or that she had ever expressed any animosity toward Mayne on account of business affairs.

Mr. Wright's affidavit corroborates those made by his wife and Elsie Ship-ton, and the fact that the District Attorney believes he can gather into atoms the defendant's motion for a new trial. With the late arrest of Mrs. Ship-ton, it is to be some time before the public hears the last of the Mayne case.

Kingsbury Jury Disagrees.

After an exhaustive trial and a day of stormy arguments in the Kingsbury case, the jury elected to disagree last evening, and were forthwith discharged by Judge Smith, much to the disgust of Deputy District Attorney Mayne, who was in favor of keeping the arbiters of Kingsbury's fate in close confinement until they had made up their minds.

The entire day was consumed by the arguments, John Jones, Esq., and Mr. Rives presenting the case for the defense, and Mr. McComas getting excited over the sins of Kingsbury that he pranced and pawed the air, talking at the rate of ninety miles an hour, and occasionally getting so much in earnest that he quoted backwards some portions of the little Bible in his coat-tail pocket, and had to be reminded by the court that his kind of emphasis sounded suspiciously like profanity.

So earnest and emphatic was the prosecution that Judge Smith deemed it necessary to warn the jury that they must be guided by the evidence alone, before beginning to read the instructions.

The disagreement of the jury will probably result in a new trial, as the District Attorney and Woodward are anxious to dismiss the case and allow Kingsbury to go scot-free.

Nolan Given Ten Years.

Harry Nolan, convicted of the infamous crime against nature, was yesterday sentenced by Judge York to ten years in the State Prison at Folsom.

Count Notes.

Judge McKinley yesterday granted Mrs. Florence Hartlee leave to adopt little Grace Callista Hodge.

In the case of Bartle vs. Wheeler, a suit for foreclosure of mortgage, Judge McKinley ordered judgment against the plaintiff, the case going by default.

John Harary was brought before Judge York for sentence yesterday. The defendant was allowed for a new trial, and sentence was continued until next Monday.

The suit of Weisenander vs. Grider et al., was on trial yesterday before Judge York.

The Times

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

Agitation of the question of Dry milk supply has reached San Bernardino. Soon the cry for genuine local fluid will overspread the country, and the lowering of the cow will, perhaps, be once more heard in the land.

Riverside is leading the first car of oranges for the season, and it will be shipped in a few days, fully one month in advance of the shipments of last year. They are of the Washington navel variety and from the grove of J. T. Ritchey. This, doubtless, will be the first car of oranges shipped from the State this year.

In Pasadena, as well as in other cities, public attention is being called to the danger of infection from watering troughs where horses are permitted to drink indiscriminately. Unless great care and scrupulous cleanliness are exercised, these troughs are likely to transmit dangerous disease germs from one horse to another.

The unsanitary conditions prevailing in certain quarters of Pasadena are receiving attention. It may not be to the liking of real estate speculators, but it is better that such a condition should be exposed and remedied than that it should be withheld from public view and continue to be a breeding place for contagious diseases.

The fact that the milkmen of Los Angeles will form a combination to raise the price of milk because the city authorities will insist upon their selling only the pure, unadulterated article will be looked upon as a confession of guilt. The admission that pure milk cannot be sold for the prices that have been prevailing will put the stamp of dishonesty upon all who go into the combine.

The danger of touching a match to stubble or dry grass during or soon after a hot dry wind from the desert was exemplified near Santa Ana Tuesday, when about $10,000 worth of machinery went up in smoke by a fire that was started around the barn just to burn off a little stubble. It is only after an accident of this kind that people realize that upon no consideration should a fire be started in dry grass or stubble, when these dry winds are blowing.

Crime seems to run in a species of hereditary vein, and just as most disagreeable criminal of immorality is filling the criminal court with defendants whose particular line of offenses deserve the death penalty quite as much as murder. If these cases could be tried behind closed doors and be rewarded with prompt and condign punishment, the way might pass, but the eagerness of the spectators for all the morbid details, promises but little improvement in the moral tone of the community, and the tenderness of juries places a premium on crimes of like nature.

MILKMAN'S MEETING.

Attempt Will Be Made to Raise the Price of Milk.

Twenty-nine dairymen who own 950 cows, and six milkmen who buy the milk they peddle from dairymen, met in the Odd Fellows' building for a protective association last evening. J. L. Starr presided and S. J. Bibb acted as secretary.

A committee appointed at the meeting of Saturday last to devise some plan by which a uniform schedule of prices could be maintained, and composed of J. W. Tarr, A. Brunold, William M. Stevens and J. L. Starr, submitted a report which was received, but not adopted. It was the general opinion that the operation of the recommendations of the report should be postponed till other dairymen have been given an opportunity, at the next meeting, to join the association.

At the next meeting, also, there will be submitted a constitution and by-laws, and the organization will enter upon the project of forcing the peddler of half-and-half milk to discard the inexpensive half. This will necessitate the establishing of such a schedule of prices as will insure a fair profit to the dairymen.

It was frankly admitted by all who spoke of the cut-rates put in force by some dairymen that honest milk cannot be sold for $1.50 a month for a quart of milk a day. It seemed to be understood that several cutters of prices were present at the meeting, but none of them denied the vigorous language used concerning their business methods.

Though no formal vote was taken on the matter the consensus of opinion appeared to be that an endeavor should be made to enlist the aid of all dairymen, and to let those who adulterate milk suffer and lend, at least, their moral support to their prosecution.

Got Her Watch and Chain.
 Mrs. Celia Hine, who brought suit against her daughter and son-in-law to recover a watch and chain, was yesterday given judgment by Justice Young. It was a lively family row beginning in a case of too much mother-in-law, and ending in mother and daughter applying for complaints against each other for grand larceny and battery, respectively.

The daughter, Mrs. Clara Allen, claimed that the watch chain had been given to her by her mother, but the old lady strenuously denied the fact, and ultimately succeeded in recovering her property.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

Turnverein Hall was brilliant with lovely women in elegant gowns and beautiful decorations last evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Stimson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Fleming gave the first large dancing party of the season. The stage had been converted into a bower with potted palms and plants, and there was stationed Lowinsky's Orchestra. The edge of the stage was backed with ferns and smilax, and below were massed potted plants. Smilax was swung in graceful designs from the balcony rail, and each window was banked with yellow chrysanthemums, smaller palms, and smilax. In two corners of the hall were bowers of palms and bamboo, where large bowls of delicious punch were placed. At the wide doors opening into the supper-room were portieres of smilax, caught back with masses of scarlet carnations. In the supper-room, each table was lighted with red-tinted candelabra, about which were heaped red carnations and smilax. Many ropes of smilax and carnations were swung from the chandeliers to the moldings, and huge palms and feathery beech made the room a refreshing retreat. The decorations were under the direction of John Reeves and Slatin, and for the supper, which was very elaborate.

Mrs. Stimson was very handsome in an exquisite gown of palest pink and green brocade, with garniture of blue and pearl pamesterie. Mrs. Fleming was lovely in a rich white silk of a creamy shade brocade with a graceful design of pink roses. Lace and jeweled passementerie were used as garniture.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nuy, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Stimson, Judge and Mrs. S. C. Hubbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. George Steckel, Dr. and Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ross, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. A. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Widma, Mr. and Mrs. H. THE MACCABEES.

The hall of the Knights of the Maccabees, Los Angeles Tent, No. 2, was crowded to the doors last evening, the occasion being a musical and literary entertainment in honor of Mrs. E. R. Neldig, supreme lieutenant-commander of the L.O.J.M. The programme included an address of welcome by Commander E. A. Lickenbach; selection, mandolin and banjo club; song, ladies quartette; recitation, Miss Moore; song, Arthur Connick; recitation, Miss Bax; song, Mrs. E. R. Neldig; piano duet, Messrs. Kronick and Bailey; vocal selection, Mrs. Bryson; song, Foley Parker; selection, Swedish Quartette. Forster, who has lately returned from Paris, was tendered an ovation, responding to a double encore. In the address of Mrs. Neldig, she traced the rise of the ladies order of the Maccabees from its origin in Michigan, with seventy members, down to the present day, when the order numbers forty-six thousand.

A LUNCHEON.

Mrs. John Kahn entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Herman Baruch, who will leave shortly for her home in Montgomery, Ala. The dining-room was prettily decorated with masses of fragrant violets and trails of smilax. In the center of the table was a mirror, upon which was placed a cut-glass candelabra, with violet shades. Violets were used lavishly about the table, and there were corsage bouquets for each guest, in dainty crystal vases. From the chandelier above was suspended a basket of violets and smilax. The drawing-room and hall were effectively decorated with roses and quantities of smilax. The present guests were: Mrs. Herman Baruch, J. S. Salkey, C. Behrendt, Miss Emma Klein, Miss Celia Abramson of Oakland and Mrs. Kahn.

AN AT HOME.

Mrs. D. C. Morrison entertained her East Side friends at a delightful yesterday afternoon at her home on North Sichel street. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Barlow, Sherwood, Nell, Roberts, W. W. Everett and Galbreath. Mrs. Evans and Miss Duke presided over the dining-room. The drawing-rooms were artistically decorated with red and yellow chrysanthemums, the dining-room with pink roses, ferns and smilax, and the hall with date palms. Those present were: Messrs. C. H. COLWELL-SOOK.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at high noon Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, at No. 430 North Broadway avenue, and Miss Carrie E. Sook were married. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A. Knight. Only the family and a few intimate friends were present. A luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Colwell left on the afternoon train for San Diego, where they will spend a short time. Upon their return they will make their home in this city.

RAILROAD RECORD EMIGRANT RATES.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL AGREE TO AN ADJUSTMENT.

The Road Charged With Demoralizing Rates by Way of New Orleans—A Bill for the Relief of the Union Pacific.

Certain changes in the Southern Pacific train service as spoken of in The Times two or three days ago are now into effect today. They will be nearly the same as contemplated, except that the train arriving in this city from the north at 10:30 a.m. will take the place of the one which has been arriving at 1:45 p.m. instead of that of the train arriving early in the morning. The additional service is to be brought about by having the train now running between Surrey and Santa Barbara run between Los Angeles and Santa Barbara.

THE TRACTION EXTENSION.
The Los Angeles Traction Company is doing some of the work preparatory to extending its line along Vermont avenue for a distance of about one-half mile south. Property-owners are gradually being notified, and the line runs north from Sixth street west of the city limits. The latter-named street forms a part of the route over which cars are to be run in connection with what is known as the "Eighth-street franchise" recently granted to W. S. Hook of the Traction company. The line extends about three-fourths of a mile on Commonwealth avenue.

TO CONFER ON EMIGRANT RATES.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The Southern Pacific has decided that it will take part in the conference of the Western roads, relative to the adjustment of the emigrant rates from New York to the Pacific Coast. The other lines accuse the Southern Pacific of paying such large commissions in the effort to draw the business by way of New Orleans, that it has been demoralizing the traffic of the other roads. They have made up their minds that they would not stand that condition of affairs any longer, and gave the Southern Pacific until today to meet with the other roads and General Passenger Agent Goodman arrived in the city today and will attend the meeting of the advisory committee of the Emigrant Clearing-house tomorrow. The meeting of the Western Passenger Association today developed nothing new.

UNION PACIFIC RECEIVER.

OMAHA, Nov. 20.—S. H. Clark, president and managing receiver of the Union Pacific, has gone to St. Louis, where he will visit with his family for a few days and then return to the receivers of the Union Pacific. This is the regular meeting of the receivers of the Union Pacific, and it is supposed some action will be taken looking to a bill for the relief of the road to be introduced in Congress at its December session.

PRESIDENT HUNTINGTON COMING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—C. P. Huntington and party left for the East this afternoon. The magnate was accompanied by his wife and the ladies who came out from New York with her; his secretary, Mr. Miles; Mr. Worthington, General Manager Julius Kritt-schmitt and H. E. Huntington. The latter two gentlemen will go only to New Orleans with the party.

The party will have its own special train and will travel only by daylight. There will be various stops along the road, the most important of which will be at Los Angeles. While there the matter of possible extension of the Southern Pacific into San Diego will be thoroughly gone into and Mr. Huntington will determine whether the desired extension can be made without a violation of the agreement with the Santa Fe. It is just possible the road will be built anyway as the Santa Fe defied, but, if that is to be done, Mr. Huntington will not make his intention public until after he shall have reached New York. He is not sure yet, it appears, whether the Santa Fe is not behind the San Joaquin Valley project or, at all events, inclined to be friendly with it, and it depends upon that whether Mr. Huntington will carry the war into the southern country.

The relations of the two big overland roads are somewhat strained, anyway, owing to the rival fast train service and it would be only a step in the same direction for them to invade each other's territory. There is nothing to show that the Santa Fe is backing the San Joaquin Valley project, and there are a great many reasons for the belief that it is not, but Mr. Huntington has had his fingers burned a couple of times or so already and he does not propose to get caught again. If the Santa Fe, which he has heretofore succeeded in stopping in the middle of the desert at Mojave, is to have a line of its own into San Francisco, then he will build a road to San Diego.

This whole matter of the extension of the Southern Pacific is in the hands of H. E. Huntington and that gentleman has a justifiable desire to shine as a builder of railroads. Also, he is enthusiastic in his wish for a San Diego branch.

UPPER-COAST RATE WAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The rate war between the Southern Pacific Company and the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company continues to wax warm. At present honors are about even, and both companies seem to hold their own, though the steamship company claims to have had the best of the fight so far.

The steamer Columbia, which sailed for Portland today, carried away a great load of passengers. All the berths were taken, and the second-class department was full to overflowing.

THE NEW LIMITED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The new Pacific limited, which left Chicago at 6 o'clock last Sunday evening via the Chicago and Northwestern, Union Pacific and Central Pacific, arrived here at 10 o'clock this evening, reducing the running time between the two cities to practically three days, instead of three and one-half days, as heretofore.

A QUARTERLY DIVIDEND.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent. was declared today by the directors of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, payable December 10, on the stock of record of November 23.

FORECLOSURE SUITS.

TOPEKA (Kan.), Nov. 20.—Foreclosure suits have been filed in the United States Circuit Court here by Samuel Carr against the central branch of the Union Pacific, Atchison, Jewell county and Western and Atchison, Colorado and Pacific railway companies. Three suits are brought by Carr as trustee for purchasers of construction bonds.

A SALE ORDERED.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 20.—Judge Seaman, in the United States court, yesterday granted the application of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York for a decree ordering the sale of the Green Bay, Winona and St. Paul Railway.

NO BONE FOR THE "EXPRESS."

Deputy Sheriff J. H. Mellette played the role of old Mother Hubbard at the Los Angeles Theater yesterday evening. The cupboard which he went to was the box office; the bone he was seeking was $44.55, and the poor dog it was intended for was the Evening Express Company. But when he got there the cupboard was bare, and so the poor dog got none.

In other words, the Evening Express Company tried to attack the box-office receipts for Prof. Tyndall's performance at the Los Angeles Theater, but found nothing upon which to levy the attachment.

It appears that the Evening Express Company entered into a contract with Prof. Tyndall to do a certain amount of advertising for him, which was to be paid for at a stated time. The Express did not wait for the professor to liquidate at his own convenience, but was in a hurry to get its money. Hence the attachment papers which were served on the professor and the manager of the theater yesterday evening.

MAJESTY WYATT, HOWEVER, HAD AN IRONCLAD CONTRACT WITH TYNDALL, BY WHICH HE WAS TO HAVE $125 A NIGHT FOR THE USE OF THE HOUSE, TO BE TAKEN FIRST OF THE RECEIPTS, THE RESIDUE TO BE HANDLED OVER TO THE PROFESSOR. TUESDAY EVENING THERE WAS SOMETHING LEFT FOR PROF. TYNDALL AFTER MAJ. WYATT HAD REIMBURSED HIMSELF, BUT LAST EVENING THERE WAS NOT QUITE ENOUGH TO PAY FOR THE USE OF THE HOUSE, LET ALONE PROFITS FOR THE PROFESSOR.

The papers were not served on Tyndall until after the close of the performance. He was very indignant and said the Express was trying to take a

A CONFIDENTIAL CHAT.

Between two men or women generally develops the fact that one or both are troubled by sickness of some kind. One man is all right except his rheumatism, another has a slight touch of dyspepsia, another has bilious headaches, and another is too nervous to sleep well. What's to be done about it? The situation is serious. Little things have a way of getting big. Big diseases have a way of getting big. Sleeplessness brings irritable nerves, loss of flesh, loss of appetite. Sleepless people soon get their bodies into such a condition that disease germs find it easy to lodge there and propagate. People die from the aggravation of an aggregation of little things. The more promptly a disease or disorder is met the more quickly it is cured. Most all sickness starts in the stomach, liver or lungs. Rheumatism, eczema, eczema, consumption, come about because insufficient, impure or impoverished blood is present. The diseased blood finds the weakest spot in the body and a local symptom appears. If the impurity is supplanted with good, rich, red, healthy corpuscles, the disease will have nothing to feed on. If the proper cleansing medicine is sent to the seat of the trouble, it will force out the germs and repair the damage done.

mean advantage of him. He had coined money by private sittings since coming to Los Angeles and intended to pay all his bills. He had been too busy to settle with the Express yesterday, but had promised to do so today. The manager of the Express, however, conceived the erroneous idea that the professor was going to leave the State, which accounted for his undue haste in instituting attachment proceedings. The professor intends to continue doing business at the old stand for two weeks yet, but his "ad" will appear in the "Express" no more.

Only Stole His Own Buggy.

Mrs. R. Robins, a lady of 43 years of age, residing at Perryville, O., says, September 13, 1896: "Any one who saw me about six months ago never thought I would be alive today. I looked like a ghost, and I couldn't eat or sleep on account of having malaria so bad. I had chronic indigestion, was dizzy about all the time. Medicine did not help me any. I spent so much on doctors I was clear discouraged. A neighbor told me about Ripans Tablets, so I bought a package at the drug store. I got better from the first dose. Now I am able to do all my housework myself. I tell everybody to use Ripans Tablets and save doctor bills."

Ripans Tablets are sold by druggists or by mail if the price (50 cents a box) is sent to The Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce St., New York. Sample vial, 10 cents.

NEWS OF CYCLING.

TODAY THE EASTERN MEN WILL MEET THE SOUTHERN FLYERS.

Judge Kerrigan, Judge Dunn and Announcer Knapp of the Bay City arrived yesterday—The Great Race of the Three-day Meet.

The world-beating cyclists have been here a week and today they meet the crack-jacks of Southern California and the finest bicycle racing ever witnessed south of the Tehachas will be seen. Since the Eastern men, under Manager Spooner, reached here, quite a number of racing men have arrived from the North, too, and some representative wheelmen who do not race, but who take much interest in the sport.

Among the arrivals were two crack-jacks of class A, who came in from San Jose yesterday. These were McFarland and Wing of the San Jose Road Club, two of the fastest class A men in all the West, and men who have also made records on the road. McFarland is known at home as "Zimmy" and has held that nickname in honor of the great Zimmerman for several years. Wing won the time prize in the annual ten-mile road race of the California Associated Cycling Clubs last month, something to well be proud of.

Judge Frank H. Kerrigan, president of the famous Bay City Wheelmen and the new chief counsel of the North California Division of the League of American Wheelmen, also reached here from the North yesterday, and with him was ex-Judge F. H. Dunn, another enthusiastic admirer of racing and a member of the Bay City Wheelmen. There is a little history attached to these two Bay City men's judgeship. For Kerrigan succeeded Dunn. Just after the Mid-winter Fair, Kerrigan, who was the attorney of the League of American Wheelmen, brought suit against the fair people for the prizes that Wells and Terrell won, but did not get, and the case was tried before Judge Dunn.

WILBUR KNAPP AS HE USED TO ANNOUNCE.

The Judge did not ride a bicycle then, but Kerrigan won the case for Wells and Terrell and when election came Kerrigan got the largest vote cast in San Francisco, except that for Sutro, and today Judge Kerrigan occupies the same courtroom that Judge Dunn formerly had and Dunn is pleading cases before him. Both of them are now bicycle-racers and members of the same club with Wells and Terrell, who will race here tomorrow.

Of all the interesting visitors who are here for the bicycle races there are none that eclipse Wilbur Knapp. A decade ago he was as great a man on the bicycle path as E. C. Bald is now. In fact Knapp was the first American wheelman to become champion of the world. Today few wheelmen know that the humorous story-telling Knapp was ever a champion. For the past two years he has been in great demand as an announcer at race meets and today will see him decked out in his white suit with his white megaphone, telling the spectators about the races, and who won them, in his own funny way. Knapp arrived late Tuesday night, and the crowd at the smoker looked in vain for him nearly an hour. Ray Stephenson will aid him in the announcing on the circuit. F. B. Rigby, the wonderful rider from Toledo, is expected in California soon to try for records and may turn up at the three-day races here. Dave Shafer, who trained Mike Dirnberger, is also expected in Southern California before many days. Within the next month several more installations of racing men and trainers will probably arrive from the East, including California's pride, little Otto Ziegler, Jr., of San Jose, and Arthur Gardner of Chicago.

Everybody should turn out to see the bicycle races of today, tomorrow and

PRESIDENT KERRIGAN OF THE BAY CITY.

Saturday, as these will probably be the last big races to be held on the local track.

The greatest race of the meet comes off this afternoon, and will be a fight of the most exciting kind between Bald, the champion, Murphy, the veteran, and Cooper, the wonder. Earl Kiser of Dayton, Ohio, will also be very much in it, and Kiser is riding better than all the rest were a few weeks ago. Another man who may win this mile open event is Charles S. Wells of San Francisco.

The races to be ridden today are as follows: Mile novice, mile handicap and mile post, class A; two mile class B, and the mile open class B invitation. There will also be a quarter mile juvenile between little Eugene Spooner and a local child.

A bit of racing gossip of especial interest to those interested in the individual racing men is that Murphy and Cooper, Bald's greatest rivals, will wear today silk racing suits of blue and white with the emblem of the Bay City Wheelmen of San Francisco, as they have both been elected honorary members of the big northern bicycle club with their respective trainers. The suits were brought down by a special delegation of Bay City men and presented to them last evening. Messrs. Young, Temple, Murphy and Cooper are once again singing the song about "We are from New York." As Bald also wears blue and white, which happens to be the colors of the Roamers' Road Club, the Bay City will not be the only California club to cheer over the new suits. Only one man has ever worn a silk suit on the National Circuit, and Cooper and Murphy will wear the famous blue and white. The many friends in all parts of Southern California who are interested in Chas. Castleman, the old Riverside, but now an Angeleno, will learn with much pleasure that the National Racing Board has removed the suspension placed upon Castleman on account of certain unfriendly charges. Chas. Castleman will therefore ride in today's races and follow the circuit.

Sunday the Eastern racing men will inspect the new bicycle track at Pasadena, and they will pay their first visit to the "Crown of the Valley." Bald and his manager, Windle, though, have visited Pasadena before and are very much in love with our sister on the east.

The work of grading on the third-mile track which the Crown City Cycling Club is building will then begin. This track is to be the best in the country, without exception, and the three other tracks like it at Salt Lake, El Paso and Manhattan Beach, are the best in the country at present.

It is about time for road records to be broken in this part of the State, as the roads are getting better with the rains. Last Sunday Jones of Riverside rode to this city in considerably under six hours and after a stop for dinner went back nearly as quick.

Many of the Santa Ana people will be up today to see the races and get points on running their meet next week. Chief Counsel-elect C. C. Monaghan came up last night. So did Harry Bundy, the racing man of the Orange County Wheelmen.

The Times Bicycle Club has decided on a weekly drill and run for every Wednesday afternoon until the New Year's-day meet of the Associated Cycling Clubs at Pasadena, where the Times boys and girls will take part in the drill and parade for prizes.

One of the Eastern racing teams has decided on Santa Monica track for winter training. It is said, and will arrive from the East during the next thirty days.

Among the new class-A men of the South who will meet Wing, McFarland, Downing and Freeman from the North for the first time today, are Eugene Le Weaver of the Roamers' Road Club. He is but eighteen years old and learned to ride last February. He weighs 170 pounds and stands five feet eleven inches and has already earned his spurs by winning from such men as Whitman, "Old-Hoss" Taylor, Yeoman, Hewitt and the rest. At the Santa Ana track opening on September 15 he rode on the track for the first time, winning the novice race in the usual runaway style of the Roamers' novices. The same day, in the five-mile handicap, he got third place and beat out Whitman in a field of twenty-one starters, with Rodriguez the only scratch man. At the Santa Monica track opening, a month later, Weaver got second to "Waltman's" first in the mile open, and captured the five-mile handicap from a big field in a very sensational win. In fact, the most exciting race of the year in Southern California.

Next week the racing arena will change to Santa Ana, and on the splendid track there fast time will be made, as tandem pacing can be used without fear.

Riverside and San Bernardino counties' supervisors have put themselves on record for better roads. Now let the other counties of Southern California join them in the good work and the wheelmen in a body will support them.

Emil Ulbricht, Will Hatton and Fritz Lacy of the East Side Cycling Club racing team are local men that ought to do some good work in the races for California. They are class B men who will meet the Eastern flyers in every event, and they will bear backing. Ulbricht is the fastest wing-rider in Southern California as to setting the pace. There is never a kick from the other contestants when Ulbricht is in the race, for Emil is right up front doing the donkey work. Emil has been named the "Flying Dutchman" on account of his nationality. His strong hold is handicaps and lap races.

Ed. Mohrig and "Baron" Meryott are in the city and will witness the circuit races today. Robert M. Welch, the California representative of the National Racing Board, and Robert A. Smythe, cycling editor of the Examiner and manager of the L. A. W., are expected from San Francisco today. So is Clarence N. Ravlin.

OIL NOTES.

Much Activity in the Field—More Wells Going.

Burdett Chandler is still pegging away at his well on Beaudry avenue near Temple. He is down 300 feet and the oil in the well is raised to within 100 feet of the top. It is Mr. Chandler's purpose to drill to second sand, because, as he says, "I'd better keep my engine at work drilling than pumping. If there is some oil in the oil I can produce." Pumping will begin at the Young, Beach and Cochrane well on Victor near Temple this morning. The well is 800 feet deep.

Edward North's new well on Temple opposite Victor is down 700 feet. The old well is turning out about 130 barrels of oil a day. A 1700-gallon sand-settling tank is being erected.

James Powell's well on Victor near Temple is producing about fifty barrels of oil a day.

The Ferguson & Camfield well on Temple near Figueroa is down about 800 feet.

E. Hurdley is putting up a new boiler for his pumping plant at Temple and Figueroa streets.

The Loma Oil Company well, No. 2, is down 450 feet. At well No. 1, which is 900 feet deep, casing is being put down. It is the intention of the company to drill seven other wells on a tract of leased property adjoining Nos. 1 and 2.

Work at the new Daheny-Cannon well on Figueroa near Temple, progressed rapidly yesterday. A depth of 75 feet was attained.

Reed & McGarry started pumping at their new well on Park Place yesterday. The Strauss plant began pumping oil from the Daggett & Fletcher well No. 3 on Edgeware Road yesterday. Drilling at well No. 4, interrupted by the dropping of some tools about a week ago, and a fishing excursion consequent thereon, will be resumed today. The well is down about 300 feet.

The Lawrence well on Metcalf is down about 650 feet.

Chas. E. Hurdley is being put into the Davidson well at Hobart and West Side. The well is down about 750 feet and pumping will begin when it is about twenty-five feet deeper.

A drilling rig for the Rex Oil Company's well No. 4 is being erected near Belmont and West First. The company is having a dump-hole dug for another well near No. 4.

A boiler and engine are being put in place near Belmont and West First, preparatory to drilling the new Green well at Belmont.

A drilling rig for the Lehman well on West State near Kern is being erected. The Far West Oil Company's well, No. 4, at Belmont and West First, is producing about 75 barrels a day. The well is about 1000 feet deep. The flow of gas from the well is very strong, and it is believed that it can be utilized to run the engine.

What Causes Them and What Cures Them.

Pain is a sign of disease.
You want to get rid of it.
There are two ways.

Either to cure the disease, or relieve the pain. The first way is the better. The curing stays the disease and the pain. The relieving only helps the pain. It will come back again. The disease stays right where it is, and eats away your health. You may not feel it while the pain is gone, but it is there, just the same.

Pain in the back is kidney trouble.
It can be cured with Dr. Hobb's Sparanoid Kidney Pills.
It can be cured to stay away, and, with proper care, never to come back.
Kidney trouble gives a great deal trouble to doctors.
It is hard to cure. There are so many conditions. They are generally so danger-

Only Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills make such a large percentage of cures. The Asparagus, from which they are made has such a healing, soothing, curative action on the kidneys, that it is such a gentle and healthful tonic, that it cures nearly every case of kidney trouble in which it is used. Rheumatism is pain in the muscles.

Lotions, etc., can only relieve the trouble. They can't cure the rheumatism. Rheumatism is a complication of kidney trouble. It is a poison in the blood. The kidneys should have taken it out, but they didn't. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills will cure rheumatism. They do it by helping the kidneys in their work of purifying the blood.

Pain in the joints is gout. It is caused by poison like rheumatism. It can be cured the same plan, by curing the kidneys, by using Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

Pain in the head. This is a symptom of brain trouble, but it is caused by the kidneys.

The brain, in working, uses up its stance. The blood supplies new substa is its danger signal.

Headaches, dizziness, neuralgia, etc.,
be cured with Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kid Pills. They do it by curing the kidneys renewing the purity of the blood.

People who have suffered from pains aches for years should try Dr. Hobb's agus Kidney Pills.
Pure blood will end their aches, and then a new feeling of life and comfort.
For the blood is the life.
But it must be pure blood.

PEARLINA NEWS

ORANGE COUNTY.
TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR FIRE NEAR SANTA ANA.

Street-railway Accident at Anaheim. A Runaway Tramp Recaptured. New Town to be Started—City Trustees' Meeting—News Notes.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 20.—(Regular Correspondence.) George W. Griffith, one of the most extensive ranchers in this county, is between $800 and $10,000 poorer today than he was yesterday morning. His son unfortunately started to burn some stubble around the large barn down on the San Joaquin ranch, where Mr. Griffith had nearly all of his farming implements, consisting of cultivators, heading wagons, threshing machines, steam engines, etc., stored. The dry winds of the past week had made the stubble as dry, almost, as powder, so that when Mr. Griffith Jr. touched the match the fire was beyond his control in almost less than it takes to tell. It spread rapidly and soon reached the barn. None of the machinery or implements to amount to anything were saved, and the loss was as above stated, between $800 and $10,000. There was $1500 insurance on the machinery and $250 on the barn. All the rest is a total loss. Mr. Griffith has over 50,000 sacks of barley of his own raising stored now, and on account of the prevailing low price of this grain this year, had intended to give up barley farming on the San Joaquin. He was contemplating moving his machinery and implements over to Fairview, where he now resides. In a few days, and next year, he was going to experiment on a large scale in bean farming.

ACCIDENT AT ANAHEIM.
As the street cars were returning up town in Anaheim late Tuesday evening from the depots there was a collision which shook up the passengers considerably and resulted in the killing of one of the horses attached to the car. The night was dark and the driver did not see the car ahead of him in time to prevent plunging full into it. The horse tried to save himself by turning out, but the car caught one of his legs, snapping the bone as if it was a piece of tinder. The horse fell, and the rolling stock was considerably jumbled up.

IT WAS WILLIE WILLIAMSON.
A bona fide specimen of the genus tramp made a sneak on the officers in charge of the chain gang today (Wednesday) for this offense on a short duration. He had not gone far until Marshal Curdiss found him and, of course, he was brought back. He proved William Williamson, the big, stout young fellow who was arrested about a month ago out near the brick kiln while he was reportedly drunk. For this offense he was sentenced to sixty days in the County Jail and judgment was withheld for him to get out of town. But he was not satisfied with his escape, so he wandered over to Orange and there went in with the gang who a few nights ago had the same offense. The Mexican Constable at McPherson, who happened to have his gun with him, the Constable landed the gang of 'em in jail, consequently William Williamson was given another sentence of sixty days—this time at hard labor. With his former sentence of sixty days hanging over his head, he became disheartened and made a break for liberty, but without material success. Sixty more days may now be added to the already 120 days' sentence. The city may yet use his services by the year.

ANOTHER NEW TOWN.
From the Fullerton Tribune it would seem that everything is booming in that portion of the county. The soil is, as every one knows, very fertile and capable of producing almost everything that is producible—even to growing young towns. But here is a paragraph to which reference is made: "Capt. Healey will begin surveying a townsite in the center of J. K. Tuffrey's 60-acre tract next Monday. The name of the new town, which is to be located four and one-half miles northeast of Fullerton, is 'Horsehoe-Mr. Tuffrey's first name. Tuffrey informs us that buildings for a butcher shop, tailor, baker, blacksmith, harness shop, saloon, and general merchandise will be erected as soon as the survey is completed."

SPECIAL MEETING CITY COUNCIL.
The City Council met Tuesday night in special session. The petition of N. B. Pierce and others asking the board to have a crosswalk put down from the east to the west side of Main street, on the north side of Fifth street, was read and ordered filed.

A 10-inch curb was ordered put in along the east side of Main street, from Third street south to Chestnut avenue. The petition of E. B. Smith, et al., asking the board to order down the following sidewalks, the same to be made of cement or asphaltum, a five-foot walk, commencing at the southeast corner of Main and First streets, running east on First street to Cypress avenue; also a five-foot walk running south to Camella street; also a four-foot walk, commencing at the southeast corner of Chestnut and Cypress avenue, running south to Bishop street, was read for the second time and granted.

A committee of four, consisting of Messrs. Hunt, Nash, West and Finley, was appointed to draft specifications for asphalt and cement sidewalks in the city of Santa Ana.

Resolution No. 89, acquiring jurisdiction to order the widening of the street-car line, which is described in ordinance No. 217, was read and passed by a unanimous vote of the members present.

Resolution No. 90, ordering the street work on the street railroad, was also passed by a unanimous vote. Resolution No. 91, declaring its intention to improve a portion of First street, in putting down a cement sidewalk, etc., on the south side of the street, was passed.

Resolution No. 92, declaring its intention to improve a portion of Cypress avenue in the same manner as First street, was passed.

The board adjourned to meet Monday evening, December 2, 1895, at 7:30 o'clock.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY.

A Liquor Dealer Fined—Thanksgiving Sports—Street Work.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 20.—(Regular Correspondence.) The city treasury is richer by $200 today through the vigilance of Marshal Wilson and his officers in detecting E. Rey in selling liquors in violation of the city ordinance at his restaurant, opposite the police office, on Seventh street. He was arrested this afternoon by Marshal Wilson and taken before Recorder Chambers. On recommendation of City Attorney Purlington, and upon the accused entering a plea of guilty, a fine of $200 was imposed, and the same was paid.

VISITORS ENTERTAINED.

The Redlands council of the American Protective Association visited Riverside council yesterday evening, about two hundred attending. They were met at the depot by a committee of the local council and escorted, headed by the Riverside band, to Masonic Temple, the place of the Redlands council meeting. Refreshments were served. A programme of music and speeches was presented. It was nearly 11 o'clock in the morning when the Redlands visitors departed.

One action taken by the two councils was the adoption of a resolution recommending the collection of a "nickel fund" for the erection of a monument in memory of Dr. S. F. Smith, author of "America," who died a few days ago.

THANKSGIVING SPORT.

Riverside, as usual in other matters, is to the front with sports for Thanksgiving day. First in order will be the game of lacrosse in the forenoon, which looked forward to with a good deal of interest by the teams are in almost daily training for the event. The first thing in the afternoon will be the baseball game between George Cobb's Colts and the Francis Wilsons of Los Angeles. It is expected that this will be the best game yet up in Southern California, since the old Riverside team used to win games almost everywhere they went. The Riverside team is losing no time in practicing.

Following this there will be the bicycle races. There could scarcely be a field day of sports in Southern California, and in Riverside in particular, without bicycle races and without Riverside wheelmen being entered, and these races will be good ones. At the gun-club grounds there will be an all-day show, in which the clubs of Riverside, Los Angeles and Santa Ana will join. The clubs of the two latter places have accepted the invitation sent them by the Riverside club and will be on hand in force. There will be no live-bird matches, but plenty of the following, as the interference in the "blue-rock" contests. At the same place there will be turkey shooting, not under the gun club, but under the "blue-rock" club, on November 21 and 22, all of both days.

The lacrosse club is practicing every other day now—Tuesdays and Thursdays. The High School grounds will be put up a good game Thanksgiving day, if thorough practice tells for anything.

THE SUPERVISORS.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday allowed a claim of $1152.76 on back taxes, erroneously levied and paid. A motion was also adopted giving prisoners in the County Jail only two meals per day, and those are to consist of bread and water alone.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The street paving is progressing satisfactorily. While one contractor is putting down the asphaltum on the block between Main and Market on Eighth street, another contractor's force is grading the block between the same street between Orange and Lemon streets, and a third contractor is keeping well ahead of both forces by putting down the cement sidewalk extensions.

SANTA MONICA.

Tumble by Team and Man—Other Local Happenings.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 20.—(Regular Correspondence.) A flurry of excitement was caused here about 6 o'clock last evening by the report that a man had been killed by a runaway. A form certainly lay motionless amid a wreck of wagon and horse, but the railroad track near the Southern Pacific freight depot. It proved to be that of Charles Merrill, but he wasn't dead by many degrees. He drives a soda-water wagon for a Los Angeles firm, and while under an influence not from his own wares, drove over the bank in the railroad park. The whole outfit took a tumble sheer ten feet. The fall smashed him generally and put the driver to sleep. Team, wagon and stock suffered severely, but Merrill had "come to" sufficiently this morning to be able to walk to the train. He was apparently the least injured object in the whole outfit.

The builders of the electric railroad continue the heroes of the hour here. Half a block away one would presume the force to number a hundred, but close inspection shows a majority of them to be citizens speculating on the rise on corner lots along Oregon avenue from the ocean to Soldiers' Home. The crossing of the street-car tracks is in, and the rails strung pretty well along from there to Ocean avenue. Toward the city two blocks of street are torn up.

The Third-street grade is practically completed, and the street has been opened. The improvement is marked by the old inclosure, that Third-street property ends at Utah avenue.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Good Templars last evening there were six initiations, and five propositions for membership. The order seems to have taken a new lease of life.

Senator John P. Jones of Nevada is enjoying a couple of weeks' vacation with his family at Mirimar.

At the regular meeting of Monday evening the Board of Trustees will meet at bridge No. 1 on Ocean avenue tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, and not only will the situation as to the proposed grade of Railroad avenue and the change it will work on Ocean avenue, but will also go over the proposed line of the new street, which is to study the problem of disposition of the sewage.

Valdes, from near Ivy Station, was buried from the Catholic Church here this afternoon. His death resulted from the bite of a fly or other insect a few days ago, which caused a severe swelling on his neck at the point wounded, and soon terminated fatally. Deceased was about 42 years of age and leaves a large family. His funeral was largely attended by the native population.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.

INQUEST FOR A SUDDEN DEATH AT ONTARIO.

Hairbreadth Escape of a Boy Thrown from a Horse—Electric Street Lighting Extension—Question of Pure Milk Supply—A Church Wedding.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 20.—(Regular Correspondence.) Coroner Keating was called to Ontario yesterday to hold an inquest over the remains of Alexander McGlachen, who had been found dead in bed.

The result of the inquest was a verdict that death was caused by natural causes, and, without an autopsy, both Dr. Keating and Dr. Watson of Ontario were satisfied that death was due to fatty degeneration of the heart.

Alexander McGlachen was 27 years of age, and a native of Canada. He had resided in Ontario only a year, having come to Southern California for the sake of his child's health. He was not strong, and in recent years had taken on fresh so much that his exertion was accomplished only with an effort.

On Monday afternoon, having eaten a hearty dinner, he lay down to rest, and a little later Mrs. McGlachen came into the room and found life extinct. The deceased left a widow and one child.

A HAIRBREADTH ESCAPE.

Ellsworth Rowell, the eight-year-old son of E. E. Rowell, met with the narrowest escape this morning that it is the lot of many boys to experience and almost unharmed, if even alive. Half a hundred people, all of whom were before 8 o'clock held their breath in horror as they saw the boy thrown to what seemed almost certain death.

He had been riding down to the city on his bicycle, and was riding on the sidewalk when he struck the corner of Bore's grocery store with such force that no one who witnessed the animal dashed up that thoroughfare at a terrific pace.

Ellsworth managed to keep his seat in the saddle, but lost all control of the horse, and soon found himself in the street. He attempted to make a short turn to the west, still going at a neck-breaking speed. In rounding the corner he lost his feet on the smooth pavement, and his speed was so great that it lifted the animal into the air, entirely clearing the sidewalk and striking the corner of Bore's grocery store with such force that no one who witnessed the animal dashed up that thoroughfare at a terrific pace.

Luckily for the latter, his feet were out of the stirrups and he slipped past the corner and escaped with hardly a bruise. Strange to say, the horse did not seem to be seriously hurt, although he limped slightly when led away.

ELECTRIC STREET LIGHTING.

The question of electric street lighting was the all-important item before the Board of City Trustees last night, and from all indications the competition for the contract this year will be very keen.

The Board of City Trustees last night, and from all indications the competition for the contract this year will be very keen. Now, Judge Wells, the company, which has recently made a bid for the lighting of Colton and Riverside, will probably bid in a very low price, and it goes without saying that the rates will probably be lower than have formerly been ruling. Under the present contract the city pays $5.35 per lamp.

The board decided to advertise for bids for from sixty to 100 arc lights, to be put on the corner of Fourth and Fifth, all bids to be in by noon of Thursday, December 5. The contract under which the city has been lighted since November 15, but Hoag's bid, let it be extended to the time a month.

MISCELLANEOUS CITY COUNCIL BUSINESS.

Two ordinances regulating matters which have called for some public attention were passed, and are now in effect. One was a repeal of the ordinance under which several merchants whose shops comprised a majority of the city were recently arrested because they had not paid a special license on whips, blankets and articles usually sold in harness stores. Under the ordinance T. A. Henderson had paid a license of $9, and this was refunded.

The question of pure milk and the epidemic of inspecting the local supply of every city, which is now sweeping over the State, was referred to by Chairman Lawson, but without taking any definite action the matter was referred to the Board of Health.

The Street Committee was instructed to make some improvements on the city lot at the corner of Fourth and D streets, in accordance with the suggestions of the Street Superintendent.

What is wanted is an inclosure, roofed over, in which the street-sweepers and other machinery can be housed from the weather.

It was reported to the board that the Southern Pacific Company had paid over the money—$800 for the lot recently purchased on Second street, and the money is now in the hands of the company.

The contracts for city printing have expired November 15, and the board directed the clerk to advertise for bids for the work.

A CHURCH WEDDING.

Ernest G. Callender of Azusa and Miss Elizabeth M. Hubbard of Glendora were married in St. John's Episcopal Church today. The pastor, Rev. W. A. Brown, who is the uncle of the bride, officiated.

REDLANDS.

REDLANDS, Nov. 19.—(Regular Correspondence.) The delay in beginning work on the proposed hotel has been the occasion of considerable speculation, but the committee, from the start, has worked with indefatigable energy, and its members have had the confidence of the community. There is little left to be done now, save to have a few details attended to, which will probably require about two days' time. The committee of citizens selected D. M. Donald to act as building inspector.

On Monday night the Royal Arch degree was conferred on A. E. Tuttle, V. C. Simpson and F. C. Hoag, by the Redlands Chapter No. 77, R.A.M.

Dr. Chester Hard of Los Angeles is visiting in the city.

Mrs. W. R. Davis has returned to Los Angeles after a visit with her mother, Mrs. R. Ewald.

Miss H. A. Purlington left for Boston this morning.

James H. Day has returned from Arizona, where he went to look after his mining interests.

Mrs. H. H. Ewald has gone to Murietta to visit friends.

DEALERS IN BUTTERINE.

Two Wholesalers and About Six Retailers in Town.

In singular contrast with the fact that the milkmen have organized to act in the matter of milk inspection, the enforcement of the ordinance requiring the sale of pure milk is the fact that dairymen have organized to resist and as far as possible prevent the sale of butterine.

Dealers in butterine are required to pay a government tax, as do dealers in liquor or tobacco. The license for wholesale dealers is $10 per month each, and the license for retailers is $4 per month each. There are about six licensed retail dealers in the city, and two wholesale dealers.

No record of the names of the dealers in the compound which is made to seem like butter is required to be kept for public inspection in the local revenue office, but the names may be obtained in the office of that department at San Francisco.

Each dealer is required to obtain a license every month, and to that end he files in the office in this city an application for a license, either wholesale or retail, as the case may be. Each application thus received is forwarded to the San Francisco office of the department and the license is issued.

Each wholesale dealer in the compound is required to make report at the end of the month, showing to the local revenue office, and how much of it he has sold to each. In this way the government officials are enabled to see that every retailer pays his license as required.

This is as far as the government goes with the matter, and it does not protect the public by interfering with the sale of butterine.

A considerable check to the manufacture and sale of the compound was effected temporarily by the action of the Legislature, prohibiting the use of coloring matter of any description in butter compounds. This has since been overcome, the manufacturers of butterine claiming that they can make the article now without the use of coloring matter.

Dealmen have for some time been organized for the purpose of keeping the manufactured product from entering into competition with genuine butter, but their efforts thus far appear to have not been very successful.

It is a fact that at frequent intervals, in the last few years, two or more carloads, at a time reach Los Angeles from the Eastern factories, and the general public has no knowledge of the stuff, and is disposed of or to whom. "This 'bull butter' is in fact eaten in ignorance of its true character."

CHARGED A NEW.

Indictment Adjudged Defective but Another Was Presented.

The trial of Robert Hayes, charged with passing a raised bill, was resumed in the United States District Court yesterday morning. The case had been adjourned from Tuesday afternoon, at which time a motion to dismiss the indictment was made.

The motion was on the ground that the indictment was defective in that it charged the defendant with defrauding J. C. Compton, who was the name of the man who was charged.

When court convened yesterday morning Judge Wells instructed the jury to find the defendant not guilty, and the jury so found. An indictment by the grand jury charging Hayes with the same offense charged in the defective indictment was at once presented, so it is probable he will have to stand trial again.

The former indictment had not been adjudged defective.

It appears that the people who witness the trial of Hayes, who was charged with passing a raised bill, just after he received his fatal injuries Tuesday night, were led to think he was being charged with the same offense charged in the defective indictment.

The boiler of each of the fire engines is covered with a coating of wood an inch thick, outside of which is a boiler of iron. The boiler is hot the exterior is heated so slightly that one can bear his hand on it.

The poor Hawkins had been pinned between the wheel and another part of the engine the smoke pouring out of the stack and the live coals falling from the firebox. It is thought led people to believe that he was being roasted in addition to his other sufferings. This is not true, as the boiler of the engine is not so hot as the exterior of the boiler.

SAN DIEGO CITY.

An Awful Bluff of Billy Carlson's News Notes.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 20.—(Regular Correspondence.) His Honor, the Mayor, William H. Carlson, in his official capacity as the president of the San Diego and Phoenix Railroad Company, wants to have W. E. Brimhall sued for $25,000 damages caused by the loss of a carload of oranges.

Carlson's road, which crosses Brimhall's ranch at Otay, Brimhall gave the road a right-of-way in fee, and the road was not completed within two years. The time limit having expired, Brimhall wants his land back, and Carlson wants the road.

Carlson's chest and instructs the attorney of the road to sue the rancher. Brimhall says: "Owing to the financial depression the road was not completed, but the company claimed an equitable interest to the right-of-way over which it had built and operated its railroad, and that it could not be taken from it except by due process of law."

At 4 o'clock Wednesday morning R. A. Thomas's barn at Fifth and Laurel streets was burned, including one horse.

H. A. Wood will build a $1200 house at Twenty-first, near F street.

Lieut. Col. R. Arndt and Maj. R. Y. Dodge of the Knights of Pythias are away inspecting the lodges at Santa Ana, Riverside and Los Angeles.

The revenue cutter Perry, expected here soon for the winter, has a tonnage of 283 and carries 450 men. She has seven officers and thirty-three men.

Standpipes and Fire Escapes.

Fire Chief Moore says that owners of buildings of three stories and over are complying with the ordinance requiring standpipes and fire escapes in a manner which is very gratifying to the officials of the department. There are, however, a few of them who have obstinately refused to comply with the requirements, and to put it diplomatically, if they do not do so it will be the unpleasant duty of the head of the department to take severe measures in the premises.

(Oceanside Blade.) It is claimed that electrical power cannot be profitably transmitted any considerable distance in competition with power generated by the use of cheap crude oil, such as we have on this coast.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY.

BURGULARS AGAIN AT WORK IN THE CHANDEL CITY.

Festive Sneak Thieves Help Themselves to Good Things—A Petty-Larceny Thief Suspected of Being a Murderer—Local Happenings.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 20.—(Regular Correspondence.) Still another burglary is added to the many that have taken place in Santa Barbara in the last two weeks. Burglars entered the home of Mrs. Moore Tuesday night, securing for their trouble $100. The thieves broke into the storeroom where there was a trunk filled with clothes. This was taken out into the yard and rifled, and clothing and silverware were found scattered over the yard. At first it was supposed that the burglars had failed to get anything. Subsequently the servant girl said she had $100 in the trunk which had disappeared, and the burglar had thus secured the same persons committed this robbery as did those at Frisius's saloon, the shoe store of Burton & Lamb and the home of John Ludwig.

FESTIVE SNEAK THIEVES.

At 1 o'clock this morning the pantry of Miss Dorcas Wheelock, residing at No. 1512 De la Vina street, was robbed. The thieves took everything that was eatable. The pantry presented a sorry sight when Miss Wheelock entered it to prepare her morning meal, for articles of food were scattered all over the floor. The burglars entered the pantry by prying off the shutter to the window and then cutting out the wire screen, for this purpose using a hatchet that they found in the room.

To prevent a dog that lives in the neighborhood from being unfriendly, the thieves fixed up a plate of cookies with milk sauce for the canine and thus prevented their presence from being known.

AN ALLEGED MURDERER.

John Hawks, who was arrested about three weeks ago for the theft of a mat from Pierce Bros., is now thought to be the same man who is wanted at Flagstaff, Ariz., for the murder of an unknown Mexican in October, 1894.

Hawks answers the description received here from Insley's Detective Agency, Los Angeles. One of Hawks's pals at the time of his arrest intimated that he could give the former away, meaning that he knew something more damaging against him than the theft of a Smyrna rug. Hawks is now in the County Jail waiting trial for stealing the mat mentioned. Credit for his arrest is due to Peter Storn.

HELD FOR GRAND LARCENY.

Pedro Chonchorena has been held to answer in the Superior Court for the charge of grand larceny, by Justice Crane. It appears that a short time ago Pedro mortgaged two horses to J. C. Wilson, and then subsequently sold the property without taking up the mortgage. Chonchorena's defense was that the parties to whom he had sold the horses were not the former away, meaning that he knew something more damaging against him than the theft of a Smyrna rug. Hawks is now in the County Jail waiting trial for stealing the mat mentioned. Credit for his arrest is due to Peter Storn.

SANTA BARBARA BREVITIES.

Mr. Hawley, traffic manager of the New York Central Railroad, and Mr. Melville, vice-president of the New York and New Haven Railway, will arrive tonight in their private car. These gentlemen expect to be in Santa Barbara for a few days, and during their stay will be the guests of the Arlington Hotel.

Rev. R. M. Ferrer, accompanied by Herman Eddy, son of Mr. Eddy of the Commercial National bank, departed for the City of Mexico via the Sunset Limited this morning. Father Ferrer and Mr. Eddy expect to be absent about two months.

Recent arrivals at the Arlington Hotel are: Mrs. Duryea and servant, P. H. Duryea, New York; A. Brown, San Francisco; J. V. Mills, Los Angeles; Mrs. T. J. Gregg, and Miss M. M. Gregg, Hueneme.

The two-story dwelling house of Raul Vayayala, at Santa Barbara, was burned to the ground this afternoon. It is not known how the fire originated. The loss is about $2000; insurance, $1600.

The following named persons are domiciled at the Mascare: J. P. Flint, William Booth, Los Angeles; A. Arnheim, R. D. McQuidley, San Francisco; C. Stander, Marysville.

The late arrivals at the New Morris House are: W. T. Joyce, Los Angeles; James Hawthorn, Nevada; Iowa; E. Snell, Mercer, Utah.

Harry Schmitt, who is wanted at Hueneme for forgery, was arrested at Longport tonight. Full particulars are not obtainable here.

(San Bernardino Times-Index.) A careful estimate of the Florida orange crop is 100,000 boxes, which is quite a drop from the 5,000,000 boxes of the season of 1893-94. The new growth of trees is doing exceedingly well, and ought to be producing again within three years. It is predicted that five hence the crop will be as large as ever.

THE CHANGE OF A LIFETIME.

He Lost It Because He Was Subject to Colds.

"Mr. Simkins, you were not here yesterday! said the proprietor to his superintendent. Simkins has heretofore not got along very rapidly 'for lack of opportunity' he says. His abilities are first-class—but he is always catching cold or something."

"Mr. Simkins contains his employer, 'I value your services highly; there is a brilliant future for you here; but I would rather have a second-class man here all the time than a first-class man part of the time. You must take better care of yourself.'"

But the weather is against him. His absence another day causes the firm a serious loss, and he joins the army of unemployed. There are many 'Simkinses'—men and women whose prospects are dashed, and careers ruined because some weakness or ailment—"too trifling for serious attention"—reduces their capacity for work and usefulness.

It is desired to have the boundary line of the proposed territory changed so as to leave out University. Some of the University people are reported to have asked that they be not left out.

The Revival.

The revival services continue at the First Christian Church. Evangelist Rossmig preached last night from the scripture, "Acquaint then thyself with him and be at peace, and therefore good shall come to thee." All men, said the speaker, are seeking acquaintances; some good, some evil. It is all important to acquaint ourselves with God. This can only be done by forming a character that God will recognize and approve. Peace, happiness, joy, eternal life can only be found from acquaintance with God. The great forces of evil cannot bring peace. The evangelist took occasion to thoroughly set for the dangers of acquaintance with tobacco, liquors, evil associations, bad literature and evil companions. From such things no good can come. On the other hand, good comes continually to the man who acquaints himself with God, and is thrown under the companionship of the righteous. He made a most earnest appeal to unconverted people to acquaint themselves with Jesus and His Father in heaven.

Wanted at Tulare.

City Marshal Carlisle of Tulare arrived from the north with a warrant for the arrest of W. C. Brewster for burglary committed in Tulare about a month ago. He applied to Chief of Police Glass for assistance in finding the culprit. Detective Steele went with the Tulare officer and soon found Brewster at work as a common laborer on a building in course of construction on Broadway. Marshal Carlisle started for Tulare with his prisoner yesterday afternoon.

A Trio of Can Thieves.

Three boys, George Knightly, Harry Richardson and Will Brown, stole fifteen gasoline cans from Harper-Reynolds' warehouse and sold them to the W. F. Fuller Company. Detective Auble arrested the trio of youthful thieves and booked them for petty larceny. They will plead guilty. The detectives say the same boys have been arrested before for stealing cans.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Good Start Made Toward Buying the Palmer Collection.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon communications from the delegates to the Transmississippi Congress, which meets at Omaha November 25, stating that they would be unable to attend, were read. It was moved and carried that the president appoint any one whom he found able to attend, and, in default of a regular delegate, to appoint Hugh Craig of San Francisco as the representative of the chamber. It was moved and carried that Mr. Craig be requested to present some resolutions in favor of the further improvement of San Pedro Harbor.

A committee to collect funds for the purchase of the Palmer collection reported that $500 had been subscribed.

Further time in which to complete the work was granted. J. A. Poshay, City Superintendent of Schools, and Haker, Gerts & Co., wholesale dealers in millinery and dry goods, were elected to membership. The following exhibits were received at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday: Crook-neck squash and Eureka lemons, from E. T. Byram, Glendale; twenty varieties of olives and two varieties of sweet olives, from Peru Fruit ranch, Ventura county; None-such and President apples, from J. W. Rogers, Carpinteria; model bee-hive for shipping bees long distances, from N. Levering, Calhoun; tree tomatoes and guavas, from Mrs. W. W. Lowe, Long Beach; white masadon carrot, from H. W.
